Reasons for Seeking to Serve on the Board, Commission, or Committee:

Having recently attended a community meeting at Monticello HS on the Biscuit Run Greenway, I came away energized and excited about the county's plans. And with further research, that interest expanded to include the Southern & Western Urban Neighborhoods Master Plan. As a father of a 2-year-old, homeowner, bike commuter, educator, landscape designer, and greenspace enthusiast in the Oak Hill neighborhood, I have a vested interest in the improvement of the 5th and Avon development area. Trained in landscape architecture, I have a background in large-scale project design, planning, and construction administration. With this has come the rewarding and challenging experience of community engagement and coordination of multiple stakeholder interests. Though my years of private practice are behind me (mostly with Nelson Byrd Woltz Landscape Architects' New York office), my interest and research in these matters have continued as faculty in UVA's School of Architecture. A component of my expertise as an Assistant Professor of Landscape Architecture is within visualization and communication—or how we as project proposers not only convey the intentions and specifics of a given project but cultivate engagement and excitement from the community. This has entailed proficiency in visualization software as well innovation in the methods one employs in such community engagement. (Moreover, I believe the experience of the Community Advisory Committee would, in turn, strengthen my instruction as an educator of our future landscape planners and designers at UVA.) As hinted above, my particular interests within the Master Plan center around bike infrastructure and greenspace development in the 5th & Avon & area. I commute by bike into Charlottesville with my son on the back and frequently daydream about the possibilities of (future) Biscuit Run Park. But I am also sensitive and highly supportive of such amenities throughout the area. It's been enheartening to see such plans and explorations within the Master Plan and am familiar with the challenges involved that must be overcome to achieve successful implementation. Public parks and greenspaces are increasingly critical in a changing world and require skillful advocacy. My son is just one of many children and community members that would benefit enormously from such action. As a close neighbor, I also feel compelled to prioritize the values and opinions of the Southwood neighborhood. Historically marginalized and sure to be highly impacted by any neighboring plans, their voices and participation should be meaningfully incorporated into county development—a prioritization that will surely benefit from elevation of their communal voice in county implementation processes. Lastly, as I grow older, community service reveals itself to be increasingly important for all to benefit collectively. I hope to aid that mission of collective wellbeing.
