PROCLAMATION

SAME PAGE 2020: "Brown Girl Dreaming" by Jacqueline Woodson

- WHEREAS, Same Page provides residents with the opportunity to read and discuss a single book within their community by an author appearing at the Virginia Festival of the Book; and
- WHEREAS, the Jefferson-Madison Regional Library invites all book lovers to participate in Same Page, which will be held throughout March 2020; and
- WHEREAS, the library's goal is to encourage all residents of Central Virginia to read and discuss "Brown Girl Dreaming" by Jacqueline Woodson; and
- WHEREAS, the book is a collection of vivid poems that describe what it was like to grow up as an African American in the 1960s and 1970s; and
- WHEREAS, Same Page is generously funded by the Friends of JMRL, supported by the Art and Jane Hess Fund of the Library Endowment and also the Virginia Festival of the Book; and
- NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that we, the Albemarle County Board of Supervisors, do hereby recognize Same Page during March 2020 and encourage all residents to read "Brown Girl Dreaming" during this time.

Signed this 4th day of March 2020.

PROCLAMATION CELEBRATING THE 100th ANNIVERSARY OF THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF THE UNITED STATES

- WHEREAS, the League of Women Voters was founded in 1920 as a "mighty political experiment" by the foremothers of the suffragist movement at the National American Woman Suffrage Association, and their goal was to help the 20 million women who were granted the right to vote by the 19th Amendment understand and carry out their new responsibility as voters; and
- WHEREAS, with the success of this effort and the tireless efforts over the last 100 years to strengthen and uphold its mission to empower voters and defend democracy, the League has become a trusted nonpartisan, grassroots organization; and
- WHEREAS, the League has sponsored legislation and fought in the courts to protect and strengthen voting rights and access, and for free and fair elections, civil rights, children, community health, and education; and
- WHEREAS, the League has consistently been noted for its nonpartisan election information, including sponsorship of candidate forums and information on state and local ballot issues, as well as its commitment to register, educate, and mobilize voters, and the League champions government systems that are open, transparent, inclusive, and equitable; and
- WHEREAS, the League believes that active and engaged citizens, irrespective of gender, ethnicity, or political affiliation, are the hallmark of democracy.
- NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Albemarle County Board of Supervisors, in recognition of its 100th birthday, wish the League of Women Voters and its local affiliate, the League of Women Voters of the Charlottesville Area, many more years of Defending Democracy.
