State law reference-Va. Code §§ 15.2-516, 15.2-1501, 18.2-415.

Sec. 10-120 Trespass--After having been forbidden to do so.

If any person, without authority of law, goes upon or remains upon the lands, buildings or premises of another, or any portion or area thereof, after having been forbidden to do so, either orally or in writing, by the owner, lessee, custodian or other person lawfully in charge thereof, or after having been forbidden to do so by a sign or signs posted by such persons or by the holder of any easement or other right-of way authorized by the instrument creating such interest to post such signs on such lands, structures, premises or portion or area thereof at a place or places where it or they may be reasonably seen, or if any person, whether he is the owner, tenant or otherwise entitled to the use of such land, building or premises, goes upon, or remains upon such land, building or premises after having been prohibited from doing so by a court of competent jurisdiction by an order issued pursuant to Virginia Code §§ 16.1-253, 16.1-253.1, 16.1-253.4, 16.1-278.2 through 16.1-278.6, 16.1-278.8, 16.1-278.14, 16.1-278.15, 16.1-279.1, 19.2-152.8, 19.2-152.9 or 19.2-152.10 or an ex parte order issued pursuant to Virginia Code § 20-103, and after having been served with such order, he shall be guilty of a class 1 misdemeanor. This section shall not be construed to affect in any way the provisions of Virginia Code §§ 18.2-132 through 18.2-136.

A. Designating the police department as the person lawfully in charge of the property. Any owner, lessee, custodian, or person lawfully in charge of any real property may designate the Albemarle County Police Department as a “person lawfully in charge of the property” for the purpose of forbidding another to go upon or remain upon the lands, buildings, or premises as specified in the designation, for the purposes of enforcing a trespass pursuant to this section or Virginia Code § 18.2-119.

1. Form of designation. Any designation shall be in writing on forms provided by the chief of police and the county attorney and shall be kept on file with the police department.

2. Discretion of the chief of police to accept the designation. The decision whether to accept or rescind a designation is solely within the discretion of the chief of police or his designee, who may base his decision on factors including, but not limited to, resource levels of the police department and the proper allocation of resources.

3. Authority to establish rules. The chief of police, in consultation with the Commonwealth's Attorney and the county attorney, may establish rules for accepting, using, and rescinding a designation.

B. Designating the county executive as the person lawfully in charge of county property. The county executive is hereby designated as the "person lawfully in charge of the property" for the purpose of forbidding another to go upon or remain upon county-owned or county-leased lands, buildings, or premises for the purposes of enforcing a trespass pursuant to this section or Virginia Code § 18.2-119.

1. Delegation to others; rescission. The county executive may delegate this authority to a deputy county executive, an assistant county executive, any county department head, and the superintendent of schools. The delegation shall be in writing and the writing shall be kept on file in the clerk of the board of supervisors' office. The county executive may rescind any delegation of authority.

2. Designating the police department. The county executive may designate sworn personnel of the Albemarle County Police Department as a "person lawfully in charge of the property" as provided in subsection (A). The designation shall be in writing and the writing shall be kept on file in the clerk of the board of supervisors' office. The county executive may rescind the designation.

3. When a written delegation or designation is not required. If the circumstances make it impracticable for the county executive to make a delegation or designation in writing, he may do so orally and memorialize the delegation in writing and file it as soon as it is practicable to do so. The writing shall include the date and time that the oral delegation or designation was made.
