ROBERT J. FINLEY

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dr. Robert J. Finley has recently served as a consultant on offshore carbon storage site selection (South Korea) and as a reviewer for basic research in carbon capture and storage as a member of a carbon research advisory group at Kyushu University (Japan). Rob served on the US National Coal Council through multiple appointments by the Secretary of Energy from 2015 through April 2020.

Rob served as Director of the Advanced Energy Technology Initiative at the Illinois State Geological Survey (ISGS), University of Illinois, Champaign, Illinois USA, from 2008 to July 2015. He joined the Illinois Survey in 2000 after serving as Associate Director at the Bureau of Economic Geology, The University of Texas at Austin, where he was a researcher and administrator for 24 years.

Dr. Finley's area of specialization is reservoir sedimentology and carbon sequestration, areas in which he has a combined 35 years of experience. His work has ranged from large-scale energy resource assessment, addressing energy resources at national and state scales, to evaluation of specific fields and reservoirs for coal, lignite, oil, and natural gas.

At the ISGS, Rob led a $100 million project on carbon sequestration in the Illinois Basin, the Midwest Geological Sequestration Consortium, one of the U.S. Department of Energy's Regional Carbon Sequestration Partnerships. In 2009 and 2010, Rob visited China as part of a World Resources Institute-U.S. Department of State sponsored exchange of U.S. and Chinese experts on geological carbon sequestration. Rob served on two task forces of the Interstate Oil and Gas Compact Commission (IOGCC) (2005-09) that developed model legislation and regulations for carbon sequestration. He also served on task forces assessing the nation's natural gas resources, including coalbed methane, sponsored by the National Petroleum Council, in 1992 and 1999. Rob led Illinois' geological site characterization team for the FutureGen 1.0 coal gasification project that was awarded to Mattoon, Illinois, but later cancelled.

Rob received a Ph.D. in geology from the University of South Carolina and holds a current Professional Geoscientist license in the State of Texas (No. 5003).

These roles offer needed outreach and feedback to local government departments. In particular, they can lubricate issues, concerns and ideas between residents and agencies. For myself, I not only own a business on Avon Street Extended, but I also am a former homeowner in Mill Creek subdivision. For over 20 years my wife and I lived and raised our three daughters in that neighborhood and sent them to Monticello High School. Today, I look out over Avon Street from my office on Avon Court. So, for these reasons, I care about this corridor and could offer healthy perspective of the area's potential.

To be clear (as this application does not seem to allow me to choose only one Board) I am applying for the Economic Development Authority. Reasons for Seeking to Serve: As a life-long nonprofit leader, I have experienced the pivotal impact of community and government working together to support citizen success. Through my 8 years as Business Assistance Director for the Thomas Jefferson Partnership for Economic Development (now Central Virginia Partnership for Economic Development) and my 4 years as Vice President for Economic Development, Heart of Georgia Technical Institute, I understand the many issues involved in "economic development," as well as the game-changing impact possible. My experience and my commitment to economic development

Education

Education:

Both graduate and undergraduate degrees in Urban and Environmental Planning from the University of Virginia

Activities and Interests

Memberships in Civic, Not-for-Profit, and Similar Organizations:

Board member for Wildlife Center of Virginia. Gubernatorial appointed board member for the Virginia Land Conservation Foundation. Serve on the Advisory Council for the Focused Ultrasound Foundation. Also serve on the Advisory Council for VIEW (Veterinary Initiative for Endangered Wildlife).

Interests:

Public service and civic engagement, particularly around issues of ensuring vibrant communities, equity, access to clean air and water, and green spaces. Committed to whole truth history and just communities.

Reasons for Seeking to Serve on the Board, Commission, or Committee:

I have lived in off and on in Albemarle County since I started as an undergraduate student at the University of Virginia in 1976. My first internship was with Albemarle County in 1979, when I worked on a pedestrian plan. I returned to work as a planner for the County in 1980 and was fortunate to be part of some really forward looking planning, including the complete rezoning of the County and extensive water supply planning. My last position with the County was as Chief of Housing and Community Development. Since then in my nonprofit career I have worked in the County on issues ranging from scenic river designations, rural historic district creation, land conservation, agricultural and forestal districts, tourism promotion and development. My last nonprofit position while living in Keswick was as VP and COO for the Thomas Jefferson Foundation. During that period I was very involved with Charlottesville Chamber of Commerce, Charlottesville-Albemarle Convention and Visitor Bureau, and in other ways promoting the tourism sector. This is long winded way of saying I have spent the majority of my work life caring for the growth and development of Albemarle County and I see the EDA as an opportunity to continue to help steward the future of this very special place.

2000-2007

THOMAS JEFFERSON FOUNDATION

Member of the senior leadership team responsible for the stewardship of Monticello, a World Heritage site. Managed six direct reports and 90 professional personnel. Responsible for the more than 200,000 square feet of related facilities occupying more than 2,300 acres and services to approximately half million visitors each year. Planned and executed the suite of public events that launched the national Bicentennial Commemoration of the Lewis and Clark Expedition, including extensive work with Virginia tribes and over 85 Native American Nations. Headed special initiatives in tourism, preservation of historic lands and viewsheds, governmental relations, community outreach and strategic planning. Protected the natural setting of Monticello through conservation easements, fee purchase and viewshed protection.

Executive Director

PRESERVATION ALLIANCE OF VIRGINIA

Headed the fundraising and led the statewide, private, nonprofit organization that fosters preservation of historic, cultural, natural, and archaeological resources by providing information and advocacy services to state and local officials, private property owners, and businesses. Creator of the “most-endangered historic places” in Virginia program. Successfully promoted rehabilitation and conservation easement tax credits and dedicated funding for land conservation in Virginia (Virginia Land Conservation Fund and Foundation). This work was done in close coordination with the Virginia General Assembly.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Vice President of Conservation and Development PIEDMONT ENVIRONMENTAL COUNCIL 1995-1996

Creator of consensus and bipartisan initiatives to preserve the traditional character, natural resources, and visual order of the countryside, towns and villages of the Northern Piedmont region of Virginia.

Executive Director 1991-1995 VIRGINIA COMMONWEALTH COMMISSION ON POPULATION GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

Thought leader and strategist for the legislative commission established by the Virginia General Assembly to foresee and plan for the likely impacts of human population growth and development on the economic vitality, natural resources, and environmental health of the Commonwealth.

Director of Planning, Zoning and Development 1988-1991 TOWN OF LEESBURG, LOUDOUN COUNTY, VIRGINIA

Reasons for Seeking to Serve on the Board, Commission, or Committee:

I have long hoped for an opening on the Jail Authority Board where my background and interest in criminal justice (and administration and leadership) would be a good fit. For the last few decades I have done extensive research on criminal justice, in particular sentencing and post-conviction issues. My writings have been extensive, as my CV indicates. As a former higher education administrator, I am well familiar with the challenges of running an institution, albeit a different one than a jail. I have been impressed with the way in which Albemarle County and Charlottesville City in particular have worked with the jail superintendent to create space for social distancing and keep the facility COVID-19 free. I would be honored to be able to participate further in the continuous improvement of our jail, with the goal of advancing public safety. I am currently on the Board of Region 10 where I have learned much about the mental health services in our community and collaborations with our jail, but also found out about missed connections between needs and offerings that would further improve individual lives and the safety of our community. I believe that the Region 10 Board has benefited from my background as a university administrator, my scholarly work on mental health and addiction, as well as my legal training. I would bring the same enthusiasm and even more subject matter knowledge and experience to the Jail Authority. Thank you for considering my application.

How did you hear about this vacancy:

William L. Wuensch, P.E., PTOE

Principal Transportation Engineer/Planner

Overview

Mr. Wuensch is a transportation engineer / planner who understands the importance of designing a transportation system that provides for multimodal mobility options within the context of the community and region. He works with stakeholders and agencies to understand and address the livability of a region or community by finding solutions that balance and optimize vehicular capacity needs, traffic circulation and parking opportunities, travel demand management, transit service strategies, and the needs of pedestrians and bicyclists. He has consulted with communities and agencies in the northeast, mid-Atlantic, and Florida providing transportation planning and engineering services.

Representative Projects

Fauquier County On-Call Transportation Engineering

Bill is serving as the County's transportation consultant engineer on an on-call basis. Typical assignments include interfacing with VDOT on land use and transportation issues, conducting small area transportation plans for comp plan updates, assisting the County with transportation planning for their growth areas, conducting special studies, and reviewing Traffic Impact Assessments relative to compatibility with the vision of the specific service districts.

VDOT Urban Development Area Planning – Bill served as the transportation engineer for the analysis of small areas in Montgomery and Fauquier Counties as part of the VDOT administered planning contract. The study effort entails working with the public and local county planning staff to develop build out scenarios for specific growth areas. Recommendations include specifics for roadway network, context sensitive typical sections, intersection improvements, and strategies to mitigate traffic impacts.

Amherst Downtown Traffic Calming and Streetscape Plan

Working through an on-call contract with the Central VA MPO, Bill led a community based planning effort to identify improvements for downtown Amherst. The improvements were largely focused on improving the aesthetics, slowing traffic, and improving the overall pedestrian and bicycling environment.

Altavista Parks and Multimodal Planning

Bill served as lead engineer to identify opportunities and improvements to better link the City's parks system in terms of multimodal accessibility. The community based plan identified specific sidewalk, street reconfiguration, and bicycle routes to enhance the livability and overall economic growth for the town and its citizens.

Fredericksburg Two-Way Conversion Study

Bill led an effort for the City to convert a one-way pair road system back to two way traffic. As a recommendation from a prior small area plan, the conversion will help to slow traffic, and improve access to neighborhoods and emerging commercial centers on the north side of the City.

City of Danville Transportation Engineering and Planning Services

Bill has been assisting the City of Danville with transportation infrastructure improvements over the past five years. Studies range from bicycle and pedestrian planning, road modifications, traffic studies including traffic calming, complete street conversions, and other multimodal related efforts.

Smart Scale Application Assistance

Bill has been assisting with smart scale applications over the past three smart scale cycles for various localities. The overall EPR team, under Bill's leadership, has served as embedded staff with VDOT to evaluate applications, screened applications relative to applicability to VTRANS, recently helped to re-write the economic development guidelines for Smart Scale. Also, Bill has prepared applications through a VDOT contract for localities throughout eastern VA.

Norfolk Multimodal Transportation Plan

Bill is serving as a senior advisor to help identify strategies and specific improvements to help transform the City's street system into a vibrant multimodal network to meet the City's vision for the future of downtown mobility. In this role he is overseeing design suggestions to help ground truth feasibility and implementation strategies.

On-Call Services – City of Charlottesville, Virginia

Bill has provided traffic engineering assistance to the City of Charlottesville for the past seventeen years. On three occasions, for a total of 30 months, he served as the City's Temporary City Transportation Engineer. Typical assignments through this contract included traffic operations analysis, responding to citizen concerns, preparation and review of traffic studies, signal retiming, neighborhood traffic calming, and assisting with the update to the City's long-range transportation plan. Recently, Bill has provided concepts and designs for curb extensions and pavement markings to improve pedestrian safety at several intersections throughout the City. In this role he has coordinated and reviewed plans for University related transportation system improvements

Central Virginia MPO On-call Services

Bill has been providing services to CVMPO over the past 13 years through on-call services agreements. Efforts conducted to date include updates to the Central Virginia Long Range Plan (three updates – 2035/2040/2045), and corridor plans for Old Courthouse Road Vision Study (Appomattox), Route 221 (Bedford County), Route 811 (Bedford), Old Graves Mill Road (Lynchburg) Amherst Walkability and Traffic Calming Study (Amherst). These studies have led to HSIP, Revenue Share, and Smart Scale funded projects.

Safe Routes to School Sidewalk Improvements

Bill managed an effort in the City of Lynchburg to design sidewalk improvements for two communities in proximity to elementary schools. For both efforts, Bass Elementary and Linkhorn Elementary, community meetings were held and then plans produced in compliance with all VDOT and review agency requirements.

Continuing Traffic Analysis and Engineering – City of Lynchburg, Virginia

Bill has provided traffic engineering assistance to the City of Lynchburg for the past fifteen years. Typical assignments include conducting traffic studies, reviewing traffic studies, designing signalization and other traffic control device improvements, and serving as a resource for providing advice on transportation matters. Bill has served as the City's temporary traffic engineer on two occasions for a total of 16 months. In this role he directly interfaced with concerned citizens and staff to advance various infrastructure improvement efforts.

Front Royal Downtown Enhancement Plan

Bill is currently managing an effort for the Town to reinvision streetscaping and parking. The plan is based on community input coupled with design creativity to identify physical improvement, and parking strategies to enhance the overall economic viability of the downtown area.

Fauquier Infrastructure and Economic Development Study

Bill is currently working as part of a team to identify feasibility of economic development sites around the County. Bill is leading the transportation access evaluation element which considers feasibility of providing access for each of the candidate sites.

TIA Studies and Reviews

Bill has led hundreds of traffic impact study efforts in Virginia and around the eastern US. These have been for developments of all sized and types, ranging from large mixed use and TND sites, industrial, institutional, and commercial uses. He has also reviewed TIA studies on behalf of numerous agencies and localities throughout Virginia.
