Professional Highlights & Key Accomplishments

United States Army, National Ground Intelligence Center (NGIC)

9/2011 – Present

Current Position: Deputy Program Management (Contracting and Intelligence Operations)

- ☑ Leadership: Directly manage and oversee the day-to-day staff of up to 14 personnel, with a contract workforce of 233 people. Regularly represents the organization in the development and planning of intelligence operations with external military commanders and inter-agency partners in order to improve operational efficiencies and outputs with a strategic focus of meeting national security priorities. I continuously take and interpret broad guidelines established by Division Chiefs, Mission Leads, Military Officers, external Military Commanders and other inter-agency partners to develop concepts and implementation plans necessary to manage intelligence operations, drive intelligence collection, and support analytical production.
- ☑ Program Management: Oversee the expenditure of a $34 million per year budget consisting of five unique sets of funds and 25 different Contract Line Item Numbers (CLINs) with a final financial execution plan of 98% of obligated funds. Regularly engage with and solicit and validate customer requirements in order to prepare recommendations for resource requirements, negotiate with managers of various components of the program to obtain needed resources, identify the proper personnel resourced to each task based on metrics, reports and operational priorities. Considered a Subject Matter Expert and resource for other organizational staff members for intelligence operations regarding future plans, processes, acquisition and execution of requirements. Administer contract proposals for review, evaluation and selection on behalf of the NGIC, and modify existing awards based on operational changes to include no cost-extensions (based on current obligated funds), re-budgeting and re-aligning obligated resources (personnel and financial).

- ☑ Strategy & Analysis: Research and analyze intelligence trends in order to determine how best to optimize tactical and operational intelligence collection in order to meet national security strategic goals. Develop compelling materials based on metrics to validate requirements, support planning efforts to capture and implement strategic plans throughout structured analysis and research related to national security objectives. Coordinate a strategic analytical plan of the organization's geographical expansion across numerous locations of military operations, and headquarter commands within the United States, in order to meet Department of Defense strategy to counter global threats.
- ☑ Coordination: Regularly prepares executive level briefings, white papers, in-progress reviews and acquisition plans in order to meet organization strategic goals. Represents our organizational in interagency and military integrated product teams (IPT) and operational planning teams (OPT). Involved in the establishment of support agreements between organizations related to financial awards for intelligence operational support. Maintains relationships with key stakeholders and decision makers, conducting outreach to customers and inter-agency partners in order to manage internal resources based on operational priorities to achieve strategic outputs.
- ☑ Training: Consistently presents intelligence capabilities, plans and execution at interagency working groups, conferences and training programs to educate other military staff officers on how tactical and operational plans meet national security goals.

Key Accomplishments

- ☑ Consistently earned above-average marks on performance evaluations.
- ☑ Provide ad-hoc financial analysis for upper management to drive critical decisions.
- ☑ Adjusted long-range plans, identified financial implications to support planning efforts.
- ☑ Provided ongoing analysis of current strategic initiatives to identify areas of growth based on mission requirements.
- ☑ Delivered management consulting and organizational strategy to drive process improvements in strategic execution, communications, and procedural compliance.

Richard W. Lindsay, M. D., is Emeritus Professor of Internal Medicine and Family Practice and former Head of the Section of Geriatric Medicine at the University of Virginia Health Sciences Center in Charlottesville. Dr. Lindsay grew up in upstate New York, where his father was a family physician. He attended Cornell University and New York Medical College from which he received his M. D. degree and where he was a member of Alpha Omega Alpha. Following an internship at Buffalo General Hospital in Buffalo New York, he practiced briefly with his father in Old Forge N. Y. and then completed a residency in Internal Medicine at the University of Virginia Hospital. This was followed by 2 years of active duty as a Major in the United States Army Medical Corps. In 1969 he joined the faculty of the Department of Internal Medicine at the University of Virginia.

In his first faculty responsibility Dr. Lindsay developed, and served as acting Chairman of the Department of Family Practice. Following that, he was awarded one of the seven original Geriatric Medicine Academic awards from the National Institute of Aging and developed the geriatric curriculum, fellowship program and continuing education efforts at the University of Virginia. He served as Head of the Division and Section of Geriatrics from 1977 until his retirement in 1999. During this time he had an active practice of geriatric medicine involving all levels of geriatric care. Dr. Lindsay worked on behalf of the University of Virginia to establish the medical clinic at the Colonnades.

In 1985 and 1986 Dr. Lindsay served as President of the American Geriatric Society and then as Chairman of its Board of Directors. He served as a member of the Governor's Advisory Board on Aging under 8 different Governors and was its Chairman under Governor Allen. He was recently appointed to the Commonwealth Council on Aging and just completed a 2 year term as its Chairman. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Jefferson Area Board for Aging. He served for five years on the Board of the U. S. Pharmacopeia. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Senior Navigator Program. He also serves on the Board of the Older Dominion Partnership. Dr. Lindsay represented Virginia at 3 White House Conferences on Aging.

He was the recipient of the Humanitarian Award from the Charlottesville/Albemarle Chapter of the Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Chapter. In 2000 he received the Geriatrician of the Year award from the Virginia Geriatric Society. The recipient of numerous teaching awards, Dr. Lindsay received the 1990 Adelle F. Robertson award for outstanding efforts in continuing education from the University of Virginia. The Virginia Association of Nonprofit Homes for the Aging bestowed upon Dr. Lindsay their distinguished service award in recognition of outstanding contributions to the People of Virginia (especially the elderly) that he has made throughout his career through educational programs, advocacy and research. In 2010 Dr. Lindsay received the Richmond Senior Connection's Eva Teig Hardy Service Award recognizing and celebrating his lifetime achievement in helping seniors improve their health and well-being. He was honored as the "2011 Independent Senior" by Branchlands.

He recently served on the Board of Directors of the University of Virginia Medical Alumni Foundation and the Foundation Board of Longwood University. He is active as a faculty member in the Jefferson Institute for Life Long Learning. He also serves on the Board of the Older Dominion Partnership.

He serves on the Board of Directors at the Virginia Center on Aging at Virginia Commonwealth University and also at the Virginia Gerontology Center at Virginia Tech. He has served on numerous Task Forces on Aging Issues for the Commonwealth of Virginia. He was chosen by then Governor Mark Warner to represent the Commonwealth of Virginia at the White House Conference on Aging, held in December 2005. This was the third White House Conference at which Dr. Lindsay represented the Commonwealth of Virginia. He was a co-founder of the Institute for Innovations in Caregiving. This is now a part of Virginia's Senior Navigator. Recently Dr. Lindsay was honored by having the Institute renamed the Lindsay Institute for Innovations in Caregiving. He also received the 2016 Southern Gerontological Society's Rhoda L. Jennings Distinguished Older Advocate Award.. Dr. Lindsay was also honored to be named one of Next Avenue's 2016 Influencers in Aging.

Since retiring he continues to teach medical students, and until 2012 served on the Medical School Admissions Committee, and continues to conduct post graduate educational programs. He has remained active in continuing education at the national level with participation as a featured speaker at numerous geriatric meetings and courses. He is actively involved in developing a high school curriculum that features aging content and teaches several classes annually at high schools and technical schools. He is the Clinical Director of the Summer Medical Leadership Program. This program was established to increase the numbers of minorities and disadvantaged students entering health careers and to prepare them to be leaders in Medicine.. He has served in this program since 1984 . He is a champion skier, plays the trumpet and loves to fly-fish. He is also recognized for his work in the field of aviation photography. He plays a wicked game of tennis, and is a dyed in the wool fan of the Cavaliers. He has three grown children, four grandchildren the latest of which arrived in January 2011, and resides in Charlottesville Virginia.

CAREER SYNOPSIS

Engaged professional inside a fast-paced and highly competitive service industry. Proven expertise in financial management, operational leadership, customer service, safety and quality assurance. Solid communication skills including insightful presentations and timely written reports. Concrete thinker with effective negotiation and problem resolution. Supervisory precision with high-level training and coaching experience. Proficiency utilizing Microsoft Office Suite and System Application Programming (SAP). Positive, productive individual with ethical business practices and basic respect for others.

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Promoted from the Northern Michigan area to the Central Virginia region in 2012, subsequently doubling contribution accountability to annual budgeted volume and increasing annual budgeted EBITA by nearly 200%.
- Direct participant and ongoing facilitation for the acquisition of four propane companies involving several piped distribution systems and thousands of metered customers. Quickly assimilated employees into the AmeriGas policies, procedures and culture.
- Successfully transitioned outdated corporate operating systems to SAP in both the MI and VA markets from 2011-2012.
- Due to a non-renewed lease, relocated the propane plant in Sault St. Marie, MI. Investigated local ordinances, located new site property, orchestrated purchase, hired general contractor and provided construction oversight. Larger site provided space for expansion along with a safer locality.
- Completed two comprehensive physical plant upgrades at the Monterey, VA and Culpeper locations; adding 48K gallons of propane storage and improved distribution capability.
- Increased Area Net Promoter Scores by 46% in a single year through phone system upgrades. Provided capability to track incoming and abandoned calls as well as instituting call monitoring and call waiting.
- Faced four challenging Human Resource Issues within the first two years in Virginia. All were settled in favor of the company without litigation.
- Nominated four direct report Managers who were ultimately selected into the Corporate Advanced Leadership Program inside the first two-years of program implementation.
- Converted Human Resource functions of hiring and annual evaluations to a seamless web-based process.
- Shifted three high-volume offices from paper delivery tickets to more efficient, hand-held mobile devices.

WORK HISTORY

- Area Director, Central/Northern Virginia, AmeriGas Propane (2012 to 2018 Retired)
- Market Manager, Northern Michigan, AmeriGas Propane (2003-Present)
- Customer Manager/Market Manager Trainee, Northern Ohio, AmeriGas Propane, (2002-2003)
- Commander, United States Navy, Virginia Beach, VA (1999-2002)

EDUCATION, AWARDS AND PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- M.S. Degree in Air Ocean Science, Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, CA (1993)
- M.S. Degree in Human Resource Management, Golden Gate University, San Francisco, CA (1987)
- Award 1st Overall Achievement in Key Performance Indicators 2013
- Award, Company Wide Lowest Fuels Key Performance, AmeriGas Propane, Northern Michigan Market (2006)

- Award, Greatest Miles Driven without an Accident Nationwide, AmeriGas Propane, Northern Michigan Market (2006)

Board Details

The Advisory Committees will provide assistance, feedback and input to County staff and the Board of Supervisors on community and county efforts related to implementation and support of the adopted Master Plan, in accordance with established county procedures. Advisory Committee members will communicate with their constituencies to increase understanding of and support for successful implementation of the Master Plan. The membership is broad-based to incorporate a variety of perspectives and ideas and to provide citizens, business people, and representatives of community groups a chance to be engaged and to be heard in a constructive and meaningful way.

The Committees will be a catalyst for helping foster a sense of community and work towards effective and efficient Master Plan implementation. Committees are a venue to discuss and provide comments on program and policy questions and/or proposals. Community Advisory Committees are an important venue for discussion and Committees can provide feedback and indicate preferences related to development proposals, although Committees do not have a legislative role in the development process.

1. Serve as liaisons.
2. Gather input from constituencies represented and bring these issues to the attention of staff and the Committee, and distribute information from the Committee back to constituents.
3. Stimulate creative thinking in examining implementation issues and identify ways of using community resources to meet implementation needs and challenges.
4. Provide advisory input, comments, and information to the Board of Supervisors on new and emerging policies, projects, and programs as requested.
5. Maintain a forward-looking agenda with respect to adopted Master Plans and policies of the Board of Supervisors. Committee meetings are not the appropriate venue to oppose adopted policy.
6. Commit to support and work to implement the adopted Master Plan.
7. Work with Staff to provide an annual report of activities to the Board of Supervisors in accordance with the Board of Supervisors' adopted Rules of Procedure for Boards and Commissions.

Albemarle County Equalization Board

Board Details

The Board of Equalization shall hear all complaints and objections to real estate assessments from the taxpayer or his agent. The Board shall hear and give consideration to such complaints and equalize such assessments and, moreover, the Board is charged with the especial duty of increasing as well as decreasing assessments. The Board's main charge is the equalizing of real estate assessments.

Overview

 Size 6 Seats

 Term Length 1 Year

 Term Limit 9 Term

Additional

Length of Term

One year beginning January 1st and ending December 31st, and may be reappointed. Per State Code, members may serve nine consecutive terms. (Eligible for reappointment after three years off the Board.)

Frequency/Times for Meetings:

As needed.

Membership:

§ 58.1-3371 of the Code of Virginia was amended in 1995 to permit any county operating under the county executive form of government to "be composed of not less than three nor more than the number of districts for the election of members of the board of supervisors in the County".

Qualifications

Members of the board shall have the qualifications prescribed by § 58.1-3374, shall conduct their business as required by § 58.1-3378, and shall be freeholders (must own property in the County). A candidate with a background in the real estate market (sales, assessing, etc.) would find that knowledge helpful in filling this position. In order to be eligible for appointment, each prospective member of such board shall attend and participate in the basic course of instruction given by the Department of Taxation under § 58.1-206. Members are paid $45.00 per meeting (Albemarle Code Albemarle Code § 2-1105).

Board Details

The Natural Heritage Committee is an advisory committee that maintains the County's Biodiversity Assessment; advises the Board of Supervisors, the Planning Commission, and County staff on applying biodiversity information to land-use decision-making; and supports biodiversity education in the County.

TASKS:

- A. Input on and oversight of the maintenance, expansion, updating, and evaluation of the ongoing Biodiversity Assessment begun by the Biodiversity Work Group, and development of a protocol for assessing changes in the state of biodiversity (with reference to planning goals).
- B. Assistance in staff development of an action plan that specifies detailed steps for achieving protection of biodiversity as outlined in the Comprehensive Plan.
- C. Development of policy recommendations to the Board in response to biodiversity issues and information gathered from the Biodiversity Assessment. The Committee should be consulted on programs, regulations, and Comprehensive Plan changes that may affect biodiversity protection.
- D. Development of educational materials and programs on biodiversity.
- E. Provision of periodic reports to the Board of Supervisors on the state of biodiversity in the County.
