Interests:

I recently retired after a 30 year career in nursing and public safety, serving the last five years of my career as the Fire Chief & Emergency Management Coordinator for the City of Charlottesville. I began my current role as Chief Operating Officer for Habitat for Humanity of Greater Charlottesville in the summer of 2020. My entire professional life has been focused on meeting the needs of the most vulnerable in our community. In recent years, I have come to understand the critical importance of a wide range of social determinants of health and well-being, many of which are rooted in and derived from local policy. Our family has lived in the Foxcroft subdivision since 2003 and both of our adult children are graduates of Monticello High School. I enjoy running the trails at the future Biscuit Run Park!

Reasons for Seeking to Serve on the Board, Commission, or Committee:

I seek to serve on the 5th & Avon Community Advisory Committee as an advocate for affordable housing and also as an 18-year resident of the Scottsville District. I believe my education, professional career, and my personal experience as a parent of a young adult with special needs will add valuable perspective to the important work of this committee.

K. Edward Lay, Cary D. Langhorne Professor Emeritus of Architecture at the University of Virginia, has Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Architecture with a graduate minor in Philosophy from Penn State and Kansas State Universities. From 1967 to 2000 he has taught in Architectural Design, Architectural History, and Historic Preservation at the University of Virginia, where he was Assistant/Associate Dean for Administrative and Student Affairs for nine years, was Director of Undergraduate Programs in Architecture for two years, and Acting Dean one semester. He led summer architecture symposiums from 1990-1999; from 2000-2012, he taught two popular seminars, "Historic Virginia Buildings," through the university's School of Continuing and Professional Studies; and since 2013 at The Center and in OLLI at UVA, he has taught three different seminars on "Architecture in Virginia."

Prior to beginning college teaching in 1963, he practiced as an architect in Pennsylvania for several years, being registered in several states and with a NCARB certification. As a private consultant in historic preservation, a 1981 team project in Georgia resulted in honor awards by the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the American Society of Landscape Architects. He was also a consultant for preservation research on the 1791 Cape Henry Lighthouse.

He has been Visiting Professor to Heriot-Watt University of Edinburgh College of Art in Scotland, has taught in the University of Virginia's summer abroad program in Vicenza (Italy) for three years, has taught at the Campbell Center for Historic Preservation in Illinois, and for two summers was Supervisory Architect for both the Historic American Engineering Record and the Historic American Buildings Survey of the National Park Service for recording America's Industrial Heritage Projects in Pennsylvania, and the preservation consultant with the National Park Service for Historic Green Springs, America's first rural preservation district (14,000 acres).

As an authority on American architecture and in particular Virginia architecture, Mr. Lay's publications include monographs such as "European Antecedents of Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Germanic and Scots-Irish Architecture in America" in Pennsylvania Folklife journal (1982), Historic Preservation Guide for Charlottesville (1980), "Charlottesville's Architectural Legacy" (1989) on Jefferson's master builders in the Magazine of Albemarle County History, "The American Renaissance at UVA" (1993) and "Jefferson's Master Builders" (1991) in UVA Alumni News, "History of the Architecture School" (1988-89) and "Dinsmore and Neilson" (1991) in UVA Colonnades, and as co-author of "Architectural Surveys Associated with Early Road Systems" in the Association for Preservation Technology Bulletin (1980), and "Castle Hill: The Walker Family Estate" in the Magazine of Albemarle County History (1994). His books include A Virginia Family And Its Plantation Houses (1987, 1989 second printing) and The Architecture of Jefferson Country (2000, 2002 second printing) both by the University Press of Virginia and both recipients of book awards, and the second book's accompanying CD-Rom was released in 2001 along with 3300 of his documented buildings placed on line. In 2013, his book & on line The History of the School of Architecture at the University of Virginia was published and his 16 audio-visual lectures Architecture in Virginia were placed on line. Articles include the dust cover for Early Virginia Courthouses, the forward for The Classic Hewn-Log House, and contributions to The Dictionary of Virginia Biography. His many book citations include Hugh Howard's Thomas Jefferson Architect 2003, Bryan Clark Green's The Architecture of Thomas R. Blackburn 2006, and Kathryn Masson's Hunt Country Style, 2008.

He has been Chair of both Charlottesville's Board of Architectural Review and Historic Landmarks Commission, served on the Albemarle County Historic Preservation Committee, has been on the board of trustees of the Thomas Jefferson Branch of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, Preservation Piedmont, the Woodrow Wilson Presidential Library, the Center for Palladian Studies in America, Battersea, the Pioneer America Society (Vernacular Architecture), VHTRC Advisory Bd, Camp Holiday Trails (for handicapped children), Camp Faith (for underprivileged children), and the Cottages at Jefferson Heights and was Vice President of both the Victorian Society in Virginia and the Albemarle Charlottesville (VA) Historical Society. Life memberships include the University of Virginia, Penn State University and Kansas State University alumni associations; Albemarle Charlottesville Historical Society; Historical Society of Perry County (PA); and The Perry Historians. Additional affiliations included the Colonnade Club, Masonic Order, SAR, Society of War of 1812, and many university, historical, architectural history, and historic preservation organizations, such as the SAH, SESA, APT, and AIA. He has been on national awards juries, such as on the National Trust's Great American Homes jury for three years and the Preservation Awards for the NC American Institute of Architects.

A 1999 recipient of a Penn State Alumni Achievement Award, he is also a 1996 recipient of the UVA Alumni Association's Distinguished Professor Award for excellence in teaching and university leadership. Mr. Lay is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, National University Leadership Honorary, Tau Sigma Delta, Arts and Architecture National Scholastic Honorary; and the Raven Society of the University of Virginia. He has received honor awards for Historic Preservation efforts from the Mayor of Charlottesville, for "Outstanding Achievement in Historic Preservation" from the Thomas Jefferson Chapter of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, and from the Virginia Society of the American Institute of Architects for his commitment to architectural education and research. Perhaps his most unique award was by the students in the School of Architecture in 1988 when they celebrated "Ed Lay Day" for which T-shirts with his caricature were made. He was listed in Who's Who in Virginia and Who's Who in South & Southwest, and a faculty profile featured him in the 1999 UVA yearbook.

Mr. Lay has had grants from the American Philosophical Society and Sesquicentennial Associateships through the Center for Advanced Studies at the University for research on Architecture in Albemarle County, for a study of antecedents of Ulster Scot and German vernacular architecture in America, and for research on Jefferson's master builders and regional architects. Grants have included ones from the German Academic Exchange Service for study in Europe, two University of Virginia Faculty Research Fellowships to study regional architecture, and Navy-Marine Corps grants to develop collapsible, kinetic structures, and University of Virginia Dean's Forum Grants, Albemarle County Historical Society Grant, Perry Foundation Grant, C. Venable Minor Expendable Gift Fund Grant, Charlottesville/Albemarle County Foundation Grant, and Thomas Jefferson Chapter of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities Grant for publication of a book and CD-Rom.

Mr. Lay is a frequent lecturer on American Architecture, specializing in Virginia. His popular "Virginia Architecture" summer seminar, attended by persons throughout America, completed its eleventh season in 2001. Often conducting architectural tours and talks of Virginia buildings, he has done so for such organizations as the Prince of Wales Institute in Architecture, the Center for Palladian Studies in America, the Institute for Classical Architecture and Art, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, the Decorative Arts Trust, the Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts, the Smithsonian, the Preservation Alliance of Virginia, Monticello, Montpelier, UVA Art Museum, UVA Library Associates, the Irish Cultural Society, CW Antiques, the Virginia Conservation Association, Farmington Historical Society, Branch Museum, and the Wichita (KS) Art Museum. He has been an advisor and participated in PBS and H&G TV programs. In addition to donating thousands of documents, photographs and slides to the university's Special Collections, he has originated three courses resulting in bound volumes also deposited there: Architectural Surveys Series, thirty-six volumes containing over 600 buildings; Measured Drawings Series, over 100 volumes containing over 900 drawings; and Architecture In Virginia Series, over 190 volumes.

Mr. Lay's students have won many national competitions under his direction: the Peterson Prize by the Historic American Buildings Survey: First Place twice, Third Place three times, and eighteen Honorable Mentions; the ACSA Design Plus Energy Competition: First Place twice; and the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture Correction Architecture Competition: First Place and four citations.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Director of Community Relations, University of Virginia

Charlottesville, Virginia

August, 2003 – June, 2014

Led efforts to build bridges positively uniting the University and the community by engaging in sustained relationship-building that facilitated communication, fostered understanding about the University and helped address community needs. A significant component of building those relationships was looking for ways to link U.Va.'s resources to community-service opportunities. One such example is the Day in the Life Program, through which 3,100 U.Va. students provided 57,240 hours of mentoring and tutoring assistance to 10,065 area youth over a ten-year period. Another component was development of a sustainability-awareness campaign, through which U.Va. employees and students helped the environment. Yet another component was a commitment to broadening University-wide support in the Commonwealth of Virginia Campaign, a workplace-giving program, and Day of Caring, an annual day of volunteer service. In addition, as part of the commitment to fostering understanding about U.Va., led the development of the University's first "Report to the Community," "Good Neighbor Guide," "Sofa Shuffle" furniture-recycling event, and U.Va. community job fair.

Interim Director of Community Relations, University of Virginia

Charlottesville, Virginia

August, 2001 – August, 2003

Revamped and substantially broadened scope and outreach of Community Relations Office. The broadened effort included five major outreach efforts: to neighbors, area nonprofit organizations, local businesses, local schools, and the community at large. Components of enhanced neighborhood relations efforts included creation of comprehensive new web site, establishment of advisory groups that met frequently with residents living near the University to address issues concerning U.Va.'s unprecedented capital expansion, creation of U.Va. Community Briefings to explain University's growth to the public, and production of University's first "Off-Grounds Living Guide," which encouraged responsible conduct of student renters. As part of broadening service to community, hired the University's first administrator of the Commonwealth of Virginia Campaign, through which U.Va. employees give generously to charities of their choice, and created the Day in the Life Program, through which U.Va. students provided mentoring and tutoring to area youth. Also hired University's first assistant director of community relations.

Senior News Officer, News Services Office, University of Virginia

Charlottesville, Virginia

January 1990 – August, 2001

A writer and media specialist covering the education school, social sciences and student affairs. I wrote about and engaged local, regional and national media attention on psychological research, sociological studies, student events, trends in student/alumni activities and graduation stories. Named to national leadership honor society. Work recognized with six national and regional awards.

Stayed at home with our second child until he was nearly three.
February, 1987 - January, 1990

Director of Public Relations, Piedmont Virginia Community College

Charlottesville, Virginia

August, 1984 - January, 1987

Was the college's first full-time public relations practitioner. As a consequence, the college enjoyed national, statewide and local media attention and benefited from its first comprehensive marketing campaign. Responsibilities included writing and disseminating news releases, writing and editing major college publications, staging special events to secure media attention, serving as coordinator of summer recruitment, and serving as coordinator of lecture series. FTE enrollment grew by nearly 10 percent during tenure. Work recognized by two service awards.

Stayed at home with our first child until he was about two-and-a-half.
January, 1982 - August, 1984

Director of Public Information and Publications, Occidental College

Los Angeles, California

January, 1980 - January, 1982

Administered nine budgets totaling over $750,000 as directed staff of 20 in the college's publications, public information, print shop, mail room and duplicating centers. In charge of the direction, content, appearance, and production of the college's major publications, which included a view book, catalogues, a quarterly alumni magazine, and as well as newsletters, brochures, posters, and flyers. Served as editor of the alumni magazine, writing approximately 40 percent of the copy, including feature stories, news and advertising copy. Also directed the college's lectures/special events series. View book won national award.

Director of Publications, Texas Association of School Boards

Austin, Texas

May, 1978 - January, 1980

In charge of the direction, content and production of a variety of publications including a quarterly scholarly magazine, a weekly legislative newsletter, a quarterly legal newsletter, and a quarterly general newsletter plus special-interest handbooks, flyers, manuals, and annual reports. Revenue from sales of the publications was triple that of any previous years. Also served as editor/policy consultant, writing school district policies to conform to state, federal mandates. Work recognized with six awards.

Information Officer, Virginia Commonwealth University

Richmond, Virginia

September, 1973 - April, 1978

Responsibilities included writing news releases and engaging local, regional and national print and broadcast attention for the Academic Campus and the Medical College of Virginia campus. Specialized in feature writing, and wrote stories in a variety of fields including education, business, psychology, the arts, medicine, and cancer research. Also furnished radio feeds weekly to stations throughout the state and nation. Also wrote and edited monthly and quarterly newsletters and created specialized publications, such as brochures, flyers and catalogues, for the University's School of Education for three years. Work received two national honors.

Editor, Monthly Trade Magazine, Virginia Food Dealers Association

Richmond, Virginia

September, 1971 - November, 1972

Wrote, designed and produced a monthly magazine. Responsibilities included writing about 85 percent of each issue, traveling statewide to interview and photograph news sources, and assisting in convention promotion.

Information Clerk, Virginia Commonwealth University

Richmond, Virginia

September, 1970 - September, 1971

During senior year, wrote news and feature press releases for local and statewide distribution, developed articles in cooperation with newspapers and interviewed, photographed news sources.

Editor, 1971 Yearbook, Virginia Commonwealth University

Richmond, Virginia

June, 1970 - June, 1971

Held during my senior year, the position called for administrative know-how as well as writing and photographic skills. Responsible for designing staff assignments, budgeting, arranging copy schedules, writing and proofing copy, and promoting sales of book. Yearbook was a complete sell-out in three days.

June, 1970 - June, 1971

Promoter, Humble Oil and Refining Company

Richmond, Virginia

Hired and trained personnel to participate in grand openings of Esso service stations. Responsibilities included hiring, arranging work schedules, designing promotion activities, writing radio scripts, press notices.

Columnist, The Salisbury Advertiser

Salisbury, Maryland

Wrote a column for a weekly newspaper.

September, 1966 - June, 1967, also September, 1963 - June, 1964.

Board Details

The Advisory Committees will provide assistance, feedback and input to County staff and the Board of Supervisors on community and county efforts related to implementation and support of the adopted Master Plan, in accordance with established county procedures. Advisory Committee members will communicate with their constituencies to increase understanding of and support for successful implementation of the Master Plan. The membership is broad-based to incorporate a variety of perspectives and ideas and to provide citizens, business people, and representatives of community groups a chance to be engaged and to be heard in a constructive and meaningful way.

The Committees will be a catalyst for helping foster a sense of community and work towards effective and efficient Master Plan implementation. Committees are a venue to discuss and provide comments on program and policy questions and/or proposals. Community Advisory Committees are an important venue for discussion and Committees can provide feedback and indicate preferences related to development proposals, although Committees do not have a legislative role in the development process.

1. Serve as liaisons by:
 - a) Contributing to public understanding of and encouraging support for Master Plan implementation;
 - b) Keeping the community informed of the needs, purposes, and progress of Master Plan implementation;
 - c) Encouraging interest and participation in community and county efforts related to the Master Plan and participation in public meetings; and
 - d) Enhancing collaboration among all community stakeholders.
2. Gather input from constituencies represented and bring these issues to the attention of staff and the Committee, and distribute information from the Committee back to constituents.
3. Stimulate creative thinking in examining implementation issues and identify ways of using community resources to meet implementation needs and challenges.
4. Provide advisory input, comments, and information to the Board of Supervisors on new and emerging policies, projects, and programs as requested.
5. Maintain a forward-looking agenda with respect to adopted Master Plans and policies of the Board of Supervisors. Committee meetings are not the appropriate venue to oppose adopted policy.
6. Commit to support and work to implement the adopted Master Plan.
7. Work with Staff to provide an annual report of activities to the Board of Supervisors in accordance with the Board of Supervisors' adopted Rules of Procedure for Boards and Commissions.

Overview

 Size 19 Seats

Length of Term

Members will be appointed for either a 2 or 3 year term to stagger the transition of new members on and off the council. After initial appointments, terms will be for 2 years. While Members will be generally expected to serve no more than 2 terms, additional terms may be considered if desired and if the Board of Supervisors deems appropriate.

Frequency/Times for Meetings:

3rd Thursday of each month at 7:00 pm in Room C at the County Office Building - 5th Street, unless otherwise noted.

Membership:

The Board of Supervisors shall appoint 12-15 members to the Committee. Each member shall be a resident of or business owner in Albemarle County and the member's home or business shall be located within the Committee's geographic area. An individual may not serve on more than one Community Advisory Committee. The representations for the Committee will strive to appoint members from a geographically diverse representation from the following: • Residential neighborhoods • Business community • Institutional community • Developer community • Industrial community • Southwood Village Mobile Home Park • Woolen Mills • Representative for trails and parks • Other stakeholders as deemed appropriate by the Board

Overview

 Size 15 Seats

 Term Length 2 Years

 Term Limit 3 Terms

Additional

Length of Term

One-third of the initial appointments will be for a one-, two-, or three-year term. The Board of Supervisors will indicate which term length when the first members are appointed. Following appointment of the initial members, new members will be appointed to three-year terms, provided, however, appointments to replace a member failing to complete a term shall be for the unexpired term of that member. Members may be reappointed for successive terms. Members serve at the pleasure of the Board and may be removed from the Committee by a majority vote of the Board.

Frequency/Times for Meetings:

The Committee will begin its tenure with a series of introductory training sessions regarding master planning and the Pantops Master Plan. After these introductory sessions, Committee members will elect a chair and vice chair, who will work with County staff to prepare meeting agendas and conduct the meetings. The Committee may wish to meet bimonthly or monthly, and may call additional meetings if needed.

Membership:

The Board of Supervisors shall appoint ten to fifteen members to the Committee with representation from the following: Pantops citizens at large Property owners and Stakeholders Business community members Civic/neighborhood organizations Representatives from adjoining areas City of Charlottesville neighborhood planners and County Community Development Department employees/representatives will interact with the group as needed. In conjunction with the Rivanna District Planning Commissioner and Board Member, the Pantops Neighborhood Planner will seek to recruit a pool of members that ensures diversity and a broad representation from the Pantops and fringe areas. There will also be a Planning Commission liaison appointed to the Committee who will attend Committee meetings and will report back to the Planning Commission at its regular meetings with a synopsis of the Committee's meetings and activities, as appropriate. The liaison, along with other Commissioners, may identify Planning Commission agenda items or updates that should be provided to the Committee and to citizens living in the greater Master Plan area. The Pantops Neighborhood Planner will coordinate all staff support to the Committee and will ensure that Council meeting agendas, materials and supplies are provided.

Qualifications

Responsibilities: 1. Serve as liaisons by: 1) contributing to public understanding of and encouraging support for Master Plan implementation; 2) keeping the community informed of the needs, purposes, and progress of Master Plan implementation; 3) encouraging interest and participation in community and county efforts related to the Master Plan and participation in public meetings; and 4) enhancing collaboration among all community stakeholders. 2. Gather input from constituencies represented and bring these issues to the attention of staff and the Committee, and distribute information from the Committee back to constituents. 3. Appointing Authority Board of Supervisors

Board Details

The Advisory Committees will provide assistance, feedback and input to County staff and the Board of Supervisors on community and county efforts related to implementation and support of the adopted Master Plan, in accordance with established county procedures. Advisory Committee members will communicate with their constituencies to increase understanding of and support for successful implementation of the Master Plan. The membership is broad-based to incorporate a variety of perspectives and ideas and to provide citizens, business people, and representatives of community groups a chance to be engaged and to be heard in a constructive and meaningful way.

The Committees will be a catalyst for helping foster a sense of community and work towards effective and efficient Master Plan implementation. Committees are a venue to discuss and provide comments on program and policy questions and/or proposals. Community Advisory Committees are an important venue for discussion and Committees can provide feedback and indicate preferences related to development proposals, although Committees do not have a legislative role in the development process.

Responsibilities:

1. Serve as liaisons
2. Gather input from constituencies represented and bring these issues to the attention of staff and the Committee, and distribute information from the Committee back to constituents.
3. Stimulate creative thinking in examining implementation issues and identify ways of using community resources to meet implementation needs and challenges.
4. Provide advisory input, comments, and information to the Board of Supervisors on new and emerging policies, projects, and programs as requested.
5. Maintain a forward-looking agenda with respect to adopted Master Plans and policies of the Board of Supervisors. Committee meetings are not the appropriate venue to oppose adopted policy.
6. Commit to support and work to implement the adopted Master Plan.
7. Work with Staff to provide an annual report of activities to the Board of Supervisors in accordance with the Board of Supervisors' adopted Rules of Procedure for Boards and Commissions.

Length of Term

Members will be appointed for either a 2 or 3 year term to stagger the transition of new members on and off the committee. Members may serve two consecutive terms. After initial appointments, terms will be for 2 years.

Frequency/Times for Meetings:

All Committees will meet together as a group annually to focus on issues of common interest to development area communities and individual committees will meet several more times during the year as needed based on master plan implementation activity. Meetings will generally be held on the 2nd Monday of every other month at 7:00 pm in the Training Room at the East Rivanna Fire Station. The East Rivanna Fire Station is located at 3501 Steamer Drive, Keswick, VA 22947.

Membership:

The Board of Supervisors shall appoint 10 members to the Committee with geographically diverse representation from the following: Residents of the Glenmore community (3) Residents of the Village of Rivanna outside Glenmore (3) Business community (2) Other potential community representatives (2) ensuring a balance between community and business representatives. There shall also be a Planning Commission liaison appointed to the committee who will attend meetings, report back to the Commission at its regular meetings with a synopsis of the Committee's meetings/activities, as appropriate. The liaison, along with other Commissioners, may identify agenda items or updates that should be provided to the Committee and the greater Master Plan area. To the extent that County planning staff is available, staff will coordinate all staff support to the Advisory Committee, ensure meeting supplies, print and copy agenda and meeting materials.

Qualifications

1. Serve as liaisons by: 1) contributing to public understanding of and encouraging support for Master Plan implementation 2) keeping the community informed of the needs, purposes, and progress of Master Plan implementation 3) encouraging interest and participation in community and county efforts related to the Master Plan and participation in public meetings and 4). enhancing collaboration among all community stakeholders. 2. Gather input from constituencies represented and bring these issues to the attention of staff and the Council, and distribute information from the council back to constituents. 3. Stimulate creative thinking in examining implementation issues and identify ways of using community resources to meet implementation needs and challenges. 4. Provide information to the Board of Supervisors as requested. Members should also be willing to: Familiarize themselves with the Vision and Implementation Plan of the Master Plan and work in coordination with County staff to provide input on Master Plan implementation. Act on the basis of information and understanding. Focus their efforts strategically to achieve the greatest possible contributions. Strive to achieve a consensus on actions/recommendations that are important to Master Plan implementation. Comment as a committee constructively and with appropriate suggestions and offers of help. Work toward benefiting Master Plan implementation rather than special needs or interests. Accept responsibility for the success of the Advisory Council by contributing appropriate time and energy.
